BISPHAM'S WIFE VANISHES WITH HER CHILDREN

Woman Feared Famous Sing- Mays, Hurrled to Hospital, Reer Might Retake Little Ones She Had Kidnapped.

MAY BE AT SEASHORE.

Latest Phase of a Family Quarrel That Has Lasted for Nearly Ten Years.

her baritone, heard to-day of the disarance from her Westchester home of Mrs. Bispham with the two Bispm children, David, 15 and Leonie, 10, whom she recently kidnapped from her susband's summer home at Tokenege, with the children upon the appearance the neighborhood of her home of we men she believed were sent by her restand to get the children back. By the separation agreement existing between the Bisphams, the children should now be in the custody of their ather. They were with their father at Hokeneke until he went to Bar Harbor,

It is said that Mrs. Bispham vanished

Me., to fulfill a musical engagement. During his absence Mrs. Bispham mesered to his country place, abstracted the children and made a flying trip with them to her Westchester home. News of the kidnapping reached the singer. who immediately despatched agents to get the children back.

Several days ago Mrs. Bispham neticed two strange men leitering about the place. She became slarmed and again made a flying journey with the children in an automobile. It is believed that she has hidden them with her mother in Atlantic City.

Trouble Dates Back to Years. The marital difficulties of the Bisphams date back ten years, and six years ago, after the couple had been separated for years, the husband brought auit for divorce in the London Probate and Divorce Court.

In his suit Mr. Bispham stated that he had been married in America in 1885, when he was twenty-eight years old. He complained of his wife's extravagance, and attributed their unhappiness to her conversion from the Protestant Episcopal faith. He said that Mrs. Bispham changed her creed in consequence of the sympatny she received from a venerable San Remo priest after the loss of her first child. The English Judge, after considering all the plaintiff's charges respecting a British army officer and a young American, dismissed the complaint. Later some sort of legal settlement was reached Bistham agreeing to pay his wife $100 a week alimony. Three years later, however, he advertised in Philadelphia and Washington that he would not be responsible for any of her debts.

Forced to Leave Hotel.

A year ago last August Mrs. Bispham and her elder daughter were compelled to leave the Collingwood Hotel without their luxuage because of an accumulated board bill for $190 which was not paid. Mrs. Bispham declared at the time that her husband had long been remiss in the payment of his allmosy. The singer was threatened with suit and the bill was at last paid.

Mrs. Bispham before her marriage was one of the most popular voing women in Washington society. She is a daughter of Gen. Charles Russel, of Indiana. Bispham was a properous Philadelphia manufacturer before he went fire singing as a profession.

POLICEMAN GOES SUDDENLY INSANE IN STATION HOUSE

covers From Strange Attack in Few Hours.

Pelloeman Percy Mays, an athletic man of thirty who lives at No. 23 Ninety-third street, Brooklyn, and who is assigned to the Fort Hamilton oiles station, was on reserve duty last night and with a dozen other men was in the rear room at 1.30 A. M. to-day when he began to talk queerly.

Maye was taken to Kings County
Hospital and placed in the observation

At 6 e'clock this morning he opened his eyes and began to talk as any same man would. He had no recollection of what had occurred during the night. When his wife was asked if she could account for his sudden attack, she said: "I cannot account for it except on the theory that he smoked too many cigarettes. He had no other bud habits, was as good a husband and father as a woman could desire, and we were per-fectly happy."
